Andy Warhol doesn't play second base for the Chicago Cubs.

He doesn't even know who does. But he's a man of many talents and interests — art, music, movies, literature — in fact, everything that's exciting in the world around us today.

You know him for his Campbell's soup can . . . camp . . . the Velvet Underground . . . Heat . . . Lou Reed. He knows which high fidelity system does the best job in the world of perfect sound reproduction. That's why Andy owns Pioneer.
